Privacy Policy

LifeBridge Community Services (LifeBridge) respects each site visitor's right to personal privacy to demonstrate its firm commitment to the security of your personal information. This statement applies solely to information collected on this website.

Information Collection and Use

LifeBridge is the sole owner of information collected on this website and will not exchange, rent or sell its mailing list to any outside organization.

When you choose to submit information to our site, or send us an email, we may collect your name, address and other personal information. This may include using the personal information to process donations, send you information you requested, and keep you informed.

Online donations are made through a safe, private and secure system that protects the individual's personal information and is protected by password, firewall, and other technologies. Information that is requested to process these donations are maintained in a proprietary database and will be used to process the donation.

LifeBridge publishes all donor names in the annual report unless otherwise indicated by the donor.

If at any time you wish you have your name removed from the LifeBridge email or mail list, simply call (203) 368-4291 or email development@LifeBridgeCT.org.
